

The NJ "Do Not Call" list has cut my solicitation calls by 98% almost immediately after I signed up. I enjoy the peace I have at home now that I am not receiving these annoying phone calls. I do not want to have anything changed in this act. If I have business I want to conduct with a company, I will contact them. I do not want to have them contact me.